Southwest Harbor Man Sentenced for Destruction of Federal Property

Bangor, Maine: United States Attorney Paula D. Silsby announced that Gregory Gilley, 20, of Southwest Harbor, Maine, was sentenced on November 13, 2007, in U.S. District Court in Bangor to three years of probation and a $1,000 fine. He was ordered to make $3,609 in restitution to Acadia National Park as one of the several conditions of his probation. Gilley had pleaded guilty on June 19, 2007, to the federal felony of destroying property in Acadia National Park.

Court records reveal that on December 8, 2006, Gilley drove his all-terrain vehicle ("ATV") to the Seawall Campground of Acadia National Park. Gilley destroyed cement and brass light fixtures that line the walkway to the amphitheater of the Seawall Campground by driving his ATV over those fixtures several times.

United States Attorney Silsby praised the investigation conducted by the National Park Service and the Southwest Harbor Police Department.
